The Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms Universität Bonn (University of Bonn) was founded in 1818. With a student body of about 35,000, the University is one of Germany’s largest academic institutions and with more than 5000 foreign students from all over the world also one of the most internationally oriented. A wide range of course offerings, an outstanding reputation in teaching and research and a unique location make the University an especially attractive place to study.

Bonn, the former Federal Capital of Germany, is located on the Rhine and is a center for the Rhineland’s way of life, art and culture. In 1989 the city celebrated the 2000th Anniversary of its founding as a Roman settlement. Bonn is Germany’s UN city with its 21 UN Agencies and hosts approx. 150 international organizations.

Furthermore, the city is also the birthplace of Beethoven, has a beautiful historic town center with a daily open market, numerous museums and many other buildings and events of significance and cultural interest.

Having almost 35 years of experience in the Erasmus programme, Erasmus students may expect to be supported by the full range of student services including language courses, orientation programme and academic guidance at the University of Bonn. During the semester, the International Office offers an extensive cultural program as well as various other programs to ensure cultural immersion and intercultural experience.

Language Requirements and German Language Courses

Language requirements

- German on bachelor level
  - German is the main language of instruction at the University of Bonn, particularly in most undergraduate/bachelor programs. Therefore, a minimum level of B1 in German is required for bachelor students. Details about German language requirements are to be found on our webpage. If in doubt, please contact the Erasmus departmental coordinator.

- English often on master level
  - However, in graduate/Master courses English is often the language of instruction. Here, a minimum level of English B2 is usually required. For more information on courses taught in English, please contact the Erasmus departmental coordinator.

German language courses before the semester

- Preparatory German Language Course: September 08-29, 2022 / March 8-30, 2023
  - level A1-B2, 56 class hours, fee for Erasmus students: €200 (regular: €250)
  - Erasmus students state their interest as part of the application process in Mobility-Online and will receive further information about placement and payment by email from the German course department

German language courses during the semester

1. General German language courses
   - 4 hours per week (equal 4 ECTS-credits), levels A1–B2, no fee

2. Topic-specific/focus courses (e.g. Regional Studies on Germany; Pronunciation Training; Presentation Skills)
   - 2 hours per week (equal 2 ECTS-credits), from level A2 (depending on the topic); no fee
ECTS-credits for all of these extra-curricular German courses can be included in the Transcript of Records upon agreement with the Erasmus departmental coordinator. Students should discuss with their Erasmus coordinator beforehand whether they accept the German course ECTS-credits for the Learning Agreements. More information on language courses on our webpage.

The International Office will inform students about the application procedure for semester German courses in its “information kit” sent after the application deadline in June/December.

The German Department (Germanistisches Seminar) does not offer any German language courses but teaches German philology and literature. Students who do not study “Germanistik” (German Studies and Comparative Literature) as their main subject are usually not admitted to study “Germanistik” at our university unless this has been agreed upon with the responsible Erasmus departmental coordinators.

German Department

The University of Bonn is connected with the EWP-network. Students should make sure to insert the correct contact details of the responsible person at the responsible department into the digital learning agreement. These can be found here. They should NOT insert the contact details of the Erasmus Institutional Coordinator (Ms. Gittel-Avehounkpan) or the Incoming Student Advisor at the International Office (Ms. Rong).

Online course catalogue “BASIS” at: https://basis.uni-bonn.de

Please note: Students cannot register for courses through “BASIS” before their arrival. Students will usually be registered by their Erasmus departmental coordinators.

For all questions concerning courses and study programs, students please contact the corresponding Erasmus departmental coordinator.

Accommodation

As in many university towns, the housing situation in Bonn is quite challenging. We strongly advise students to apply for a room in a student dormitory very early and to start searching for private accommodation at the same time.

The International Office of the University of Bonn does not arrange accommodation, but supports students with information and advice.

More information on housing will be sent to students with the admission and can be found on our website.

The Studierendenwerk Bonn offers some rooms and apartments for students with special needs. As there is a limited number of such rooms, students are highly advised to get in touch with the International Office (erasmus-incoming@uni-bonn.de) well in advance so that they can support the application accordingly.

Accessibility

The University of Bonn is not based in one single campus, but spread throughout the city of Bonn. However, similar study areas are usually concentrated in one area.
