Courses taught in French open to exchange students:

SUL (university language center)

FLE-AMU french classes open to exchange students

Students can follow up to 30 hours of French courses, spread over 10 weeks (each semester). Please note that these classes are subject to availability.

Depending on the host faculty, students may qualify for 4 ECTS. To do so, students are required to include «FLE-AMU» courses in their Learning Agreement and to follow 9 additional hours of online self learning.

Students from the Faculty of Arts, Letters, Languages and Humanities and students from the Graduate School of Management will receive FLE classes within their faculties.

Life in Aix-Marseille

Disability

Aix-Marseille Université's Mission Handicap welcomes and supports students with physical, sensory or psychological disabilities, dyslexia or long-term disabling health conditions.

It offers appropriate measures for each student throughout his or her university career, particularly in terms of study and exam accommodations.

Study permits/ visa process

Students must check with the appropriate French Embassy or Consulate in their home country for information about how to apply for a student visa.

Insurances

Non EU students need to register online to the free of charge French Health Plan after arrival in France.

EU students should ask for the European health insurance card (CEAM)

All students also have to subscribe to a housing insurance and a personal liability insurance. It is recommended to check the housing insurance contract. Sometimes the liability insurance is already included.

Transportation

Arrival by plane

The closest airport to Aix-en-Provence and Marseille is Marseille-Provence Airport located approximatively 20 miles away from Aix-en-Provence or Marseille.

Arrival by train

There are two different train stations "gares" associated with Aix-en-Provence:

- the Gare SNCF Aix Centre-Ville is located downtown Aix.
- Aix TGV is the high speed train station located about 15 minutes by bus outside of Aix-en-Provence.

Only one train station is associated to Marseille: Gare SNCF Marseille St-Charles

Cost of living

Accommodation in Hall of Residence:
≈ 255 €/month

Student ressources & services

Buddy system

International students can take part in the Buddy program and have a student tutor. A local student (a Buddy) will help integration at the university

Welcome desk

This event offers international students the opportunity to meet our different local partners and get valuable assistance in completing all the administrative procedures they need to deal with:

Visa

Insurances

Health-related procedures

Bank account

Housing and accommodation

Student membership transport passes

It will also help them to get in touch with the different internal or local services of AMU.

Integration activities

During the first semester, students have the opportunity to register for cultural and social activities and be immersed in their future campus and local life during the intergration week. It is highly recommended to arrive one week before the beginning of the fall semester and take part in the International Welcome Week.

In the second semester, new exchange students can register for the Integration Day to get to know each other and discover their new environment.
