Student services (social service, accommodation, restaurants, associations , ...)	Introduction for International Students All international students are invited to take part in the Introduction Programme. The main purpose of the programme is to acquaint students with KTH and Sweden. The introduction meetings are scheduled for the beginning of August, the beginning of September and February. Further information is given with the Letter of Acceptance. Furthermore, all institutions of higher education in Sweden have Student Unions. The KTH Student Union is called THS, Tekniska Högskolans Studentkår. The International Student Service, ISS, is an organisation within THS aimed at helping international students get to know each other, enjoy their stay and learn about Sweden. ISS organises a number of social and cultural activities as well as trips and parties, particularly in August and January but also continuously during the semester. Swedish language courses The Language Unit at KTH offers exchange students Swedish language courses free of charge. There are intensive courses in July and August. During the academic year the Swedish language courses run parallel to the study programmes. Find out more on the Unit for Language and Communication website: www.language.lib.kth.se Accommodation KTH offers accommodation services for exchange students. KTH Accommodation rents rooms for exchange students in student housing buildings (dormitories). Rooms are also rented in apartment houses. The rooms are located in central Stockholm as well as in the suburbs of the city. KTH offers this service to international students as the housing market is extremely difficult in Stockholm. The location of the room will depend on the number of rooms available at the moment. There is no possibility to choose your room or address, nor to change rooms! Exchange students must apply for accommodation on the web-application form for exchange studies. This form is sent to the international coordinator of the chosen program at KTH. A housing confirmation is sent to the student before arrival in Sweden but the housing contract is signed upon arrival at KTH. For information please visit their website at: www.kth.se/studies/exchange/accommodation?!=en.

PRESENTATION OF THE INSTITUTION

KTH is Sweden's leading technical university and provides undergraduate and postgraduate courses in architecture, engineering and technology. In addition, KTH offers a broad range of Master's programmes. Since KTH is a technical research university, courses always include the latest developments within the subject at hand.

The main campus is located in central Stockholm. The School of Information and Communication Technology is located in the Kista Science City, north of Stockholm, and the School of Technology and Health on campuses south of Stockholm. Diversity is present everywhere at KTH. Not only in regards to its courses and in its student population, but also in the wide range of Master's programmes on offer which are attended by students from all over the world.

Master's degrees of high international standard

The master's programmes in English are open to both foreign and Swedish students with a Bachelor's degree or equivalent academic qualifications. The Master's programmes present an opportunity for students with excellent academic performances to obtain a competitive Master's degree of the highest international standard. The duration of the programmes is either one or two years. The programmes consist of course work followed by a degree project.

View of the institution on internationalisation and mobility in particular

International Cooperation

KTH became involved in international cooperation in an early stage, and is today running a large number of international projects and cooperates with prestigious universities worldwide. KTH is also an attractive university for international students. During 2008 KTH had approx 3500 international students (including exchange students and international master's students), which is more than any other Swedish university. The international activities within education are coordinated by the International Office.
