Additional requirements

1. Level of applicants

The majority of Erasmus exchange agreements with UK LEEDS01 are at undergraduate level and therefore it is rare incoming students are allowed to take modules taught at PG level. It is at the discretion of the teaching department at the University of Leeds to allow Erasmus students a place on a postgraduate module.

2. Accommodation

The University of Leeds will offer Study Abroad students a place in University student accommodation subject to the students applying before the application deadline of April 15th.

3. Disabled students

The University of Leeds has a Disabled Students' Assessment and Support team who can offer advice to incoming exchange students. Students should refer to the following website:

<http://www.equality.leeds.ac.uk/disabled-students/>

4. Orientation programme

Incoming exchange students will be entitled to attend an orientation program at UK LEEDS01 which will bring to the attention of Study Abroad students certain known risks e.g. health, personal safety and security, cultural sensitivities and emergency procedures including relevant contact telephone numbers. The orientation period will also include advice on academic matters such as academic integrity.
