Type of mobility	Subject area	Language(s) of instruction	Required minimum language level *
Student Mobility for Studies	Any	Greek , English	English (or Greek) B2
Staff Mobility for Teaching	Any	Greek, English	English (or Greek) B2

* Level according to Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), see https://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/resources/european-language-levels-cefr

For more details on the language of instruction recommendations, please refer to our course catalogue.

2.2. Additional requirements

Courses at Aristotle University of Thessaloniki are normally taught in Greek. However, there are courses in other languages too, especially at the Foreign Language Faculties, Faculty of Law (courses in English, French and German language), School of Journalism & Mass Communication, School of Economics and School of Political Sciences. Furthermore, in some cases even though a course may not be offered in the English Language, Erasmus students are provided with the opportunity of following the course through bibliography in English or a paper until the end of the semester.

The examination, in all the above cases, is in the English Language

Students with disabilities

Social and Health Policy Committee of AUTH was established in 1997 with the aim to facilitate students with disabilities. Services have been developed and updated according to European and International standards. There are several fields that Social and Health Policy Committee is getting involved, always aiming to make student life easier so that all students can focus on their academic demands.

Services available
Students with visual impairment	- Converting books or notes in any file the student is using to study (text to speech, print them in Braille etc)
Students with hearing disabilities	- Interpretation in Greek Sign language everywhere in the campus of our University during working hours. - Co-operation with Hellenic Federation of the Deaf in order to provide sign language interpreters for all lessons of deaf students. - Unfortunately we do not provide interpretations in other foreign sign languages.
Students with mobility disabilities	- We provide transportation to students with mobility disabilities from their residences to the campus and vice versa in an everyday basis.
Services to all students	- blood donation days - connect students with other institutions so that they will be given the professional care they need depending on their issue.

Social and Health Policy Committee is always personalizing its services adjusting them to the needs and wills of every single student.
