

International Summer Programme German as a Foreign Language

Universität Augsburg
27 July – 21 August 2020

Course Description

The International Summer Programme is a project-based language course that uses the city of Augsburg to explore and gain a deeper understanding of aspects of German culture. Students will work in small teams and receive intensive language support from qualified instructors. During this four-week course, they will also have access to the university library and computers. As a tradition, students take part in the "Festival of Peace" (Hohes Friedensfest), which is celebrated in the city of Augsburg on 8 August every year.

- Course Fees 2020: € 380.00 (accommodation and meals not included)
- Accommodation: twin bedrooms at a hostel in the city centre (including Wi-Fi and shared kitchens, meals not included) for € 525.00 per person for the entire duration of the course. Alternatively, accommodation can be arranged by the participants themselves.
- Meals: The canteen and cafeterias on the university campus offer affordable food and drink (except on weekends and on public holidays).
- Requirements: Participants must be at least 18 years old and must have advanced German language skills (a minimum of B2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference, preferably level C1).
