CALL FOR APPLICATIONS:

Selection of 20 students for the 2025 Arts in Venice Summer School, 'The Shape of Water'

This Call for Applications can be found at the link: www.studyinvenice.it/en

Art. 1 – Presentation

The Venetian Higher Education Institutions – the Venice Academy of Fine Arts, Benedetto Marcello Music Conservatory, Ca' Foscari University and Iuav University – are partners in the Study in Venice network and in 2025 they have established the 3rd edition of the Arts in Venice Summer School, 'The Shape of Water' so as to offer selected students English-taught courses of excellence in an international context.

The Summer School is offered to students from any Italian or international universities, fine art academies and music conservatories, as well as to artists, teachers and scholars with a relevant background and a strong interest in the topics of the Summer School.

Candidates are expected to be familiar with at least one of the following areas – Archaeology, Architecture, Art and Music History, Performing Arts and Environmental Science – and to be especially willing to get a deeper knowledge about the city of Venice and its cultural and environmental heritage.

Selected candidates can benefit from the Programme:

- a) to complete their studies at the Venice Academy of Fine Arts, Benedetto Marcello Music Conservatory, Ca' Foscari University and Iuav University through recognition of the credits acquired;
- b) to develop their curriculum vitae in preparation for further studies;
- c) to come into contact with different teaching methods in the humanities field;
- d) to take part in an intensive final workshop;
- e) to enrich their personal development through a knowledge experience set on site within an intercultural context;
- f) to live in the historic centre of Venice together with fellow students in international student residences.

Art. 2 – Arts in Venice Summer School, 'The Shape of Water': courses, structure and credit recognition

1. 20 students will be accepted for the Arts in Venice Summer School, 'The Shape of Water' in 2025. Further admissions up to 5 more places might be considered by the Selection Committee depending on courses and lab facilities.
2. Courses are taught by scholars and researchers from Ca' Foscari University of Venice, Iuav University of Venice, the Venice Academy of Fine Arts and Benedetto Marcello Music Conservatory, in the areas of Archaeology, Architecture, Art and Music History, Performing Arts and Environmental Science, and are held in English (the official language of the programme).
3. In 2025 the Arts in Venice Summer School, 'The Shape of Water' will hold the following courses:

Archaeology, Medieval Art, Contemporary Art, History of Architecture, Urban Planning, Environmental Sciences, Venetian Music Performance and Research, Music History.

All courses will focus on Venice as a case study and students will have the opportunity to put into practice their knowledge and ideas during a final workshop.

Senior students from Iuav University of Venice will assist and support the students in their studies and during their stay in Venice.

4. The programme runs for two weeks from June 30th until July 11th, 2025. Classes are held in the four institutions – the Venice Academy of Fine Arts, Benedetto Marcello Music Conservatory, Ca' Foscari University and Iuav University –, however, on-site learning represents the core of the Summer School programme: students will have the opportunity to see and experience in the real city what they have been taught.
5. The Summer School runs for a total of 54 hours. If a student is unable to attend any of the sessions (classes, labs, field trips), the course professor/the tutor/the Summer School office must be notified, and valid motivation must be provided.
6. Students who do not attend at least 75% of the whole school hours will not be eligible to obtain the certificate described below.
7. Upon successful completion of the Arts in Venice Summer School, 'The Shape of Water', students will obtain a certificate of attendance; credits might be recognised by each participant's home institution, and up to 4 credits (ECTS/CFU) by one of the participating universities in the Study in Venice network, based on their respective governing rules.
8. For all information on courses, schedule, extra-curricular activities and credit recognition students can visit the Summer School website <https://www.studyinvenice.it/en>
